

EDITOR TELLS WHY DIFFERS WITH SON

R. W. Patterson Brands Socialism
As "One of the Wildest Fanaticisms of the Age."

CORRUPTION IN POLITICS

Tribune Publisher Says "Can't Even Run Dog Pound Without Graft," in Chicago.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 3.—R. W. Patterson, editor of the Chicago Tribune, does not share in the socialist views expressed by his son, Joseph Medill Patterson, the former Commissioner of Public Works of Chicago. The elder Mr. Patterson and his son were at the Holland House in this city to-day and both expressed decided opinions upon the subject. The father declared it to be his belief that "socialism is one of the wildest fanaticisms of the age."

He added that the real reason his son gave up his municipal office was because he had been asked to do things for which he could have been indicted and for which he should have been indicted had he done them. While he did not at all agree with his son's theories, Mr. Patterson said he conceded to every man the right to think for himself and added that a mere difference of opinion would not be permitted to make any difference in the relation between his son and himself.

"If sons did not have any different ideas from their fathers," he said, "two would be back in the days of Abraham." Mr. Patterson said that municipal ownership in Chicago or anywhere else, is a farce and said if his son should ever run for mayor of Chicago on a socialist platform, he would not get the support of the Tribune.

Dog Catcher's Graft.

"They can't even run the dog pound without graft in Chicago," he continued. "They catch the good dogs but never the curs, because they know some one will come after the good dogs. My son came in contact with practical politicians at home, and was thoroughly disgusted. He was asked to do things that would have indicted him. He was asked to remit the water taxes of certain men, simply on the ground that they were influential politicians. He couldn't do this, so he got out. Graft, pure and simple, that is what Joe found practical politics meant under the Dunn municipal ownership administration. I say this without reflection upon Mayor Dunn personally. I'm talking of the system. If partial socialism is such a failure, when the complete socialism that my son thinks would be a universal panacea would be a colossal catastrophe."

Two Weeks Apart.

WINCHESTER, Va., March 3.—Just two weeks after the death of her husband, Joseph C. Mason, his widow, Mrs. Martha Ellen Mason, died of pneumonia last evening at her home, near Winchester, aged seventy-three years. She leaves five sons and three daughters.

THE FOREST RESERVE CONGRESS IN SESSION

Resolutions Urging Action By Congress Were Adopted.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 3.—A number of representative citizens from various Southern States attended the meeting held here to-day in the interest of an establishment of a government forest reserve in the Appalachian Mountains.
Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, presided and made a short address.
Other speakers were made by Clifford Pinchot, chief forester of the United States; Alfred Akerman, State forester of Massachusetts; Alfred Gaskill, United States forestry department; Governor Terrell, of Georgia; F. H. Newell, chief hydrographer of the United States; A.
T. Smythe, Charleston, S. C.; J. F.
Hayes, Toxaway, N. C.; Dr. G. H. Wylie, New York; Dr. G. A. Schenck, chief forester of the Baltimore estate, Asheville; Prof. Joseph Hyde Pratt, University of North Carolina; P. C. Bates, New York; W. S. Lee, Jr., Charlotte; Prof. Collier Cobb, University of North Carolina; J.
Elwood Cox, High Point, N. C.; H. D.
House, professor of Botany, Clemson College, S. C.
All agreed the importance of preserving the Southern forests.
At the night sessions, resolutions urging action by Congress, were adopted.

PASTEUR TREATMENT.

Boy Bitten and the Dog Which Bit Him Brought Here.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., March 3.— Yesterday Captain Carl B. Ledbetter carried his son, bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, to Dr. Hoen's Pasteur Institute, Richmond, Va., for treatment, the dog being also taken there alive in a box.
Captain Ledbetter telegraphed to his brother that Dr. Hoen advises that all dogs bitten in this city by the one thought mad, be killed, and that his son is now under treatment. His own dog, "Buck," is still kept alive in Richmond, pending development, when, if hydrophobia shows itself, the full pasteur treatment of the boy will be given.

BERKLEY WARD.

Will Be Known As The Eighth.
Adds 7,500 People.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., March 3.—The council's redistricting committee met last night and reported that the population of the new Berkley ward, by the enumeration just completed, is 7,581. This will give Berkley seven councilmen—four in the common branch and three in the select branch. The redistricting committee prepared an ordinance making Ber-kley the eighth ward of the city, and asked the electoral board to name a registrar of election of the new ward, so that voters there may have their names transferred from the county to the city poll books.

"Trial By Jury" Pleased.

Despite the inclement weather last Tuesday night, Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera, "Trial By Jury," was played to a large audience with great success at the Belvidere Hall. The choruses were finely rendered and the cast was thoroughly at home in their parts. Special mention must be made of the acting and singing of Mr. McIver Jones as judge, Mr. E. Thomas as counsel and Miss Pattie West as plaintiff. The opera was preceded by a concert, in which Miss Pattie West rendered two selections.
Miss West, who is studying for the concert stage, has a voice of much sweetness and she was repeatedly recalled.

PROMINENT MEN ARRESTED

Former Secretary of War and Also Chief of Police Charged With Conspiracy.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3.—The following dispatch, dated at Bogota, Colombia, was received to-day at the State Department: "Another group of prominent men, including Fernandez, former Secretary of War, and Ramirez, chief of police, have been arrested for conspiracy. The former has been exiled to Cucaceno, and the latter has been tried by court-martial."
"The would-be assassins of the President have not been apprehended. The police are patrolling the city, armed with rifles. Most amicable relations exist between the American legation and the government."

TRIED TO MURDER REV. DR. BUCHANAN

orderly man, who, as far as the records showed, had never been arrested by the police.

Dr. Buchanan is waging an earnest and bitter war against crime and vice in the city, and, acting for the Associated Charities, is doing a splendid work.
His activities are resented by a certain class of miscreants and professional beggars, who fear the relentless investigation that is being made of their means of livelihood.

The attempt at murder last night is, however, the first direct attack that has been made on Dr. Buchanan, and the strangest part of the act is that it was perpetrated by a Richmond man, who bears a respectable reputation.

The police authorities say that they will certainly apprehend Wade, who will appear before Justice Crutfield to-morrow morning.

ATLANTIC CITY SUICIDE A TENNESSEE VETERAN

(By Associated Press.)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 3.—The body of the man who committed suicide last night by leaping from the end of Young's Pier floated ashore at South Atlantic City to-day. From papers found on his pockets it is believed that the man was E. M. Y. Bass, once a Tennessee lawyer and a Confederate veteran. The man had a cork leg, and the body was floating head downward when discovered.
The man claimed to represent New York magazines. No money was found on the body.

OBJECTS OF NATURE.

Mr. John Davey to Speak on "Birds, Trees and Flowers."

Mr. John Davey, of Sewickley, Pa., will lecture in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow night on "Birds, Trees and Flowers." The address is to be given under the auspices of the Civic Improvement League. The lecture will be entirely free, and is to be educational and inspirational in character. To all who hear the lecture will give a deeper and truer meaning and appreciation of the aesthetic and utilitarian value of the beauty in nature.
This subject has been closely studied by Mr. Davey, and he speaks from abundant sources of information.

Meetings This Week.

As far as the schedule as at present made, but goes to show it would seem that the city fathers are to have quite an easy time this week.

The following are the meetings called for the week:

Monday—Street Committee at 4 P. M.; Police, Elections and Schools at 7:30 P. M.; Common Council at 8 P. M.

Tuesday—Committee on Markets at 7:30 P. M.; James River Improvement at 8 P. M.

Wednesday—Local Assessments at 8
P. M.

Secure Dr. Bishop.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., March 3.—Park Place Presbyterian Church has secured Rev.
Dr. C. E. Bishop, of William and Mary College, as pastor, pending the calling of a minister. Dr. Bishop will preach there to-morrow morning, and will exchange pulpits to-morrow with Rev. Dr.
Joseph Rennie, of the First Presbyterian Church, Norfolk, who, under appointment of the Presbytery of Norfolk, is moderator of the session of the Park Place Church.

Mammoth Oak Cut.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROXBURY, Va., March 3.—W. L. Cotman cut to-day what was one of the largest oaks in this section of the country. It was seven feet across the stump—so large that there was no saw in the neighborhood long enough to cut it down, and he was compelled to cut it sixteen feet from the ground, where it was three feet in diameter, and produced five cords of wood above where it was cut off.

Lad Seriously Cut.

The little son of Emmett Watson, of South Fourth Street, fell while playing a few days ago and struck his arm against the sharp edge of a broken bottle. But for the presence of mind and the intelligence of a lady of the neighborhood, it is reported that the lad might have bled to death. It was some time before a physician could be reached and the flow of blood was stopped by a bandage placed above the cut by the lady.

R. J. REDFORD, CASHIER

R. F. & P. FREIGHT DEPOT

R. J. Redford, who resides at 1323 West Clay Street, states: in my vocation I am obliged to use my eyes almost constantly. About two years ago my eyes gave me great pain and neuralgia at times so severe I could hardly do my work. I tried various remedies and glasses, but I still continued to have headache. One of my dear friends had obtained such wonderful relief for his eyes, he advised me to consult Charles Lincoln Smith, and I am mighty glad I did. Two years ago by his method and prescription glasses, my eyesight was made perfect and the headaches ceased entirely, and I have been alright ever since. To say I appreciate his work is speaking mildly. He has been a grand benefactor to me.

HE IS GRATIFIED WITH RESULTS OBTAINED.

E. W. Gates, president of the E. W.
Gates Sons' Company, and one of the oldest and most popular wholesale grocers in the South, is an ardent admirer of the New York expert. He says:
"I have used Charles Lincoln Smith's method and prescription glasses for over two years, and I am highly gratified with the results in my case."

CANNOT FIND WORDS TO EXPRESS GRATITUDE

The experience of Mrs. J. C. Higgins, of 329 East Grace Street, with her family physician, supplies an anecdote that will be found instructive as well as amusing.

Mrs. Higgins, after consulting Charles Lincoln Smith and getting the benefit of his method and prescription glasses, expressed the matter with her family physician.

"The medical practitioner offered to make a wager with Mrs. Higgins that the optometrist's work would not benefit her eyes."

"I'll bet you will come to me in less than sixty days to recommend a specialist to you, for your eyes are in a terrible condition."

More than two years have passed since the doctor offered to make that bet. I have worn the glasses which I received from Charles Lincoln Smith constantly, and I feel like another person. Formerly,
